Big Dog at the Big Game

Fort Lauderdale, FL – The big game is hitting South Florida, and so is the YELLOW DOG Team.

The New Orleans Saints, for the first time ever, will compete for the title of “Super Bowl Champions” against the Indianapolis Colts, winner of a previous Miami-hosted Super Bowl event.

“In honor of Super Bowl XLIV in our backyard, we intend on fully supporting the industry we love...the restaurant industry,” says David Rose, Vice President – Recruiting for YELLOW DOG.

“This is a big year for us. It's our 5-year Anniversary and we intend on making it a fun year. Since the game is being hosted where we have an office, we thought we'd seize the opportunity to celebrate in style,” continued Rose.

The YELLOW DOG team will kick off the festivities with a team building event on Saturday.

Friends of the Pack are invited to meet the YELLOW DOG Team between the 1st and 2nd Quarters on the 100 level, outside of section 142.
